AMENDMENT

Proposed by: Deputy J A B Gollop
Seconded by: Deputy R R Matthews

To delete both propositions and to substitute therefor:

- “1. That the Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948, as amended be further amended to provide that with effect from the General Election to be held in 2012 there shall be:

14 Island Deputies elected Island-wide, with the 7 candidates polling the largest number of votes being elected for a six-year term and the other 7 successful candidates being elected for a three-year term, with elections to the office of Island Deputy thereafter taking place in 2015 and every following three years for 7 Island Deputies to be elected for a six-year term; and

28 District Deputies elected for a three-year term, four being elected in each of the existing Electoral Districts, where the election for Island Deputies shall be held not less than one month prior to the date on which the election for District Deputies takes place.

In the event of the States rejecting Proposition 1 above, whether they are of the opinion:-

2. That the Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948, as amended be further amended to provide that with effect from the General Election to be held in 2012 there shall be:

14 Island Deputies elected Island-wide, with the 7 candidates polling the largest number of votes being elected for a six-year term and the other 7 successful candidates being elected for a three-year term, with elections to the office of Island Deputy thereafter taking place in 2015 and every following three years for 7 Island Deputies to be elected for a six-year term; and

21 District Deputies elected for a three-year term, three being elected in each of the existing Electoral Districts, where the election for Island Deputies shall be held not less than one month prior to the date on which the election for District Deputies takes place.

In the event of the States accepting one of the above propositions, whether they are of the opinion:-

3. To direct the States Assembly and Constitution Committee to report to the States with detailed proposals relating to the procedure at, and conduct of, such elections.”.

AMENDMENT

Proposed by: Deputy R R Matthews

Seconded by: Deputy J A B Gollop

To renumber Proposition 2 as Proposition 6 and to insert between Propositions 1 and 6 as thus renumbered:

“In the event of the States rejecting proposition 1 above, whether they are of the opinion:-

2. That in respect of the General Election to be held in 2012, the Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948, as amended, shall be further amended to provide:

that there shall be 15 Island-wide Deputies elected Island-wide in an election held during March 2012, for a term of office ending on 30 April 2014;

that a candidate for the office of Island-wide Deputy must be nominated by five persons, each such person being from a different electoral district; and that there shall be 30 District Deputies elected in the existing electoral districts in an election held during the month of April and in every fourth year thereafter during the month of April, for a four-year term.

3. That the Rules of Procedure of the States of Deliberation and the States Resolutions governing the Constitution and Operation of States Departments and Committees be amended to provide with effect from 1 May 2012:

that eligibility to hold the office of Chief Minister shall be restricted to an Island-wide Deputy; and that the terms of office of the Chief Minister, Deputy Chief Minister, Ministers and Members of Departments, and Chairmen and Members of Committees shall be two years.

4. That with effect from the election of Island-wide Deputies to be held in 2014:

- (a) the Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948, as amended, be further amended to provide:

that there shall be 15 Island-wide Deputies elected Island-wide in an election held during the month of March and in every fourth year thereafter during the month of March, for a four-year term;

that any casual vacancies in the office of District Deputy occasioned as a result of the election of Island-wide Deputies shall be filled for the remainder of the four-year term then current at by-elections to be held on a single day during the month of April; and

- (b) that the Rules of Procedure of the States of Deliberation and the States Resolutions governing the Constitution and Operation of States Departments and Committees be amended to provide that a Minister holding office as such on the day on which nominations for the office of Island-wide Deputy are opened shall thereafter be ineligible to seek election to the office of Minister if he has not first secured election to the office of Island-wide Deputy.

5. To direct the States Assembly and Constitution Committee to report to the States as soon as practicable, and in any event by no later than November 2011, setting out detailed proposals relating to the allocation of the 30 seats to be distributed across the electoral districts at the General Election to be held in 2012.”.
