2000

Guernsey adopted Human Rights Law with implications for the Housing Control licensing system

2008

Population Policy Group formed to develop mechanism to enable the States to manage the size and makeup of the Island's population

Jan - Mar 2011

Consultation document sent out to businesses and interest groups. Public consultation

2013

Detailed Proposals for the mechanics of the new regime agreed by the States

2012

Guiding Principles for a Population Management system agreed by the States

June 2011

Public and business response to consultation published

2014

Amendments to the 2013 proposals agreed in respect of Qualifying Period of Residence, as well as a Birthright' for those born of long-established Guernsey families

July 2015

The States agreed proposals for handling the transition from the Housing Control regime to the Population
Management regime

March 2016

The States approved the draft Population Management Law and the draft Open Market Housing Register Law which now need to be sanctioned by the Pray Council

3 April 2017

New Population Management Law commences

2016/17

Operational policy and supporting infrastructure development, including the development of the Population Advisory Panel will take place to prepare for a commencement date of 3 April 2017