THE STATES OF DELIBERATION AND THEIR COMMITTEES

RULES

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolutions of 27 November, 2015<sup>1</sup>, and in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Article 7 of the Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948<sup>2</sup>, the States Committees (Constitution and Amendment) (Guernsey) Law, 1991 and the States Reform (Guernsey) Law, 2015<sup>3</sup>, hereby resolve that the following shall be the Rules of Procedure in and in relation to assemblies of the States of Deliberation.

Preamble

These States' Rules contain two sections:

- Section 1 – Rules of Procedure (procedures to be followed before and during States' Meetings generally)
- Section 2 – Committee Rules (which govern the operation of Committees of the States)
- Appendix A – The mandates of all the Committees of the States and several non-governmental bodies.

These Rules should also be read in conjunction with the following pieces of legislation:

- The Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948, as amended
- The States (Reform) (Guernsey) Law, 2015
- The States Committees (Constitution and Amendment) (Guernsey) Law, 1991

In particular:

The Reform (Guernsey) Law, 1948, as amended, sets out:

- That there shall be 40 Members of the States – 38 People's Deputies in Guernsey and two Alderney Representatives;
- The functions of the Legislation Review Panel and the Policy & Resources Committee when the latter is making urgent Ordinances.

The States (Reform) (Guernsey) Law, 2015 sets out:

The rules for a Committee delegating its functions to a member(s) of the Committee;
The rules for a Committee assigning functions to another Committee.

General Principles

In Guernsey, parliamentary and governing functions are fused in one body, the States of Deliberation. Guernsey is governed not just through its parliament but by its parliament. In practice, most day-to-day functions are carried out by Committees of the States, each of which is independently responsible to the States of Deliberation. Committees of the States – individually or collectively – are in no way analogous to an executive or government. A Committee is in effect an agent of the States of Guernsey exercising functions conferred on it by resolution of, or legislation approved by, the States of Deliberation.

The States of Deliberation:

- o allocate the functions of government;
- o carry out the functions of government which they have retained – for example, policy determination;
- o debate and vote upon proposals to enact, amend or repeal legislation;
- o debate and vote upon proposals for taxation and expenditure;
- o scrutinise and hold to account the policies, decisions and administration of those functions of government which they have allocated to their Committees.

It is conducive to effective and efficient governance that matters should be dealt with at their appropriate level.

The States should concern themselves with debating legislation, broad policies and priorities, items of significant expenditure and matters of major public interest, and setting the framework in which the rest of the administration should operate.

The Policy & Resources Committee is the senior Committee of the States. It should concentrate on leadership and co-ordination of the work of the States, fiscal policy and economic affairs, and representing the Island in external relations.

Most policy-making, regulatory and public service functions are delegated to one of six Principal Committees. They should focus on developing policy, advising the States on policy, reviewing performance and budgets, and delivering, or overseeing the delivery of, services with a view to securing improved outcomes for the community.

There are other Committees of the States, which may be designated Authority, Board, Commission or Committee, with responsibilities, inter alia, for scrutinising policy, financial affairs and legislation, for specific regulatory functions, for the procedures of the States and their Committees, and for the commercial and trading interests of the States.

The civil service should run public services in accordance with policies set down by the States and their Committees.

Generally the principle of subsidiarity should apply: as far as possible matters ought to be handled by the smallest, lowest or least centralised competent authority.

- (5) Subject to paragraph (4), when a sursis of a matter has been proposed and seconded debate shall be limited strictly to the sursis, and no other issues relating to that matter (including proposed amendments) shall be debated until the sursis has been voted upon.
- (6) An amendment which goes further than the original proposition shall not, on that account, be ruled out of order, but a motion that the amendment be not debated and no vote be taken thereon may be laid only immediately after the amendment has been proposed and formally seconded (i.e. before any speech by its seconder or further debate) and shall have effect if supported by a majority of the Members voting on the motion.
- (7) Where an amendment or sursis is debated the President (or a representative) of the Committee from which, or in the case of a requête a representative of those Members from whom, the matter originated shall have the right to speak on the amendment or sursis immediately after its proposer has proposed the amendment or sursis or immediately before its proposer replies to the debate under Rule 17(2) or at any other time during the debate but at one of those points in the debate only.

  - (b) where relevant, the inspector has reported on the amendment within paragraph (2)(g) pursuant to section 10(3) of that Ordinance; and

- (11) Where the procedure envisaged by paragraph (10) has been followed, and alterations or additions are accordingly laid before the States:
- (a) that paragraph shall not then apply as respects any matter referred to in any amendment dealt with in those alterations or additions; but
  - (b) no other matter may then be the subject of any further amendment or debate.
- (12) Where a Committee (or in the case of a requête, the requérants) has resolved to request that an article or proposition be withdrawn, a motion to withdraw the said article or proposition shall be in writing and must state the names of its proposer and seconder. Debate on such a motion shall be limited strictly thereto and no other issues relating to the article or proposition shall be debated until the motion to withdraw has been voted upon.

Sittings in committee

Neither the Member making that request nor any other may address the Meeting about it. Members who would be entitled to speak and who would intend to speak should the debate continue shall be invited by the Presiding Officer to stand in their places, and thereafter the Presiding Officer shall ask the Member making the request to close the debate whether he or she still so requests, and if he or she does still so request the Presiding Officer shall put the said request to the vote and if the majority of the Members voting support it then (except that the President, Policy & Resources Committee shall be entitled to comment on any financial implications, if he or she has not already done so, and subject to Rules 17(2), 24(7) or 28(3)), the debate shall be closed, and (subject to Rule 27) the matter shall be put to the vote.
- (2) A Member may vote only from his or her seat in the States' Chamber (except where the Member has been issued with a certificate by the Presiding Officer to vote by proxy). - (3) A Member may, by reason only of absence from a Meeting of the States of Deliberation for the purpose of childbirth or care for an infant or newly-adopted child, by written notice in the form set out in Schedule 4 to these Rules arrange for their vote to be cast in accordance with this Rule by another Member acting as a proxy (a proxy vote) for a maximum duration of six continuous months.
- (3A) The Presiding Officer may, from time to time, upon representations from the Civil Contingencies Authority in light of circumstances prevailing in the Island, prescribe certain reasons for absence ('Authorised Absence') from a meeting of the States, which shall entitle a Member to arrange for their vote to be cast by another Member acting as a proxy (a proxy vote) if their circumstances require

- (8) The order of voting on a division at any Meeting of the States shall be the same for each division taken at that Meeting (including a Meeting adjourned in accordance with Rule 6, and including a division on a matter adjourned from a previous meeting) but shall be rotated by groups of five members, listed alphabetically, between each Meeting and the next.
- (9) On the announcement of the result of a division, any Member may challenge the accuracy thereof and thereupon a fresh division shall take place. Such further division cannot be challenged.
- (10) Unless otherwise stated, in order for a proposition to be carried it needs to be supported by the nearest whole number above one-half of the Members voting on the proposition.
- (11) Where a Proposition is rejected which had proposed that a particular action not be taken, such rejection is not a positive instruction for the action to be undertaken.

- (12) A vote recorded by electronic equipment authorised for that purpose by the States of Deliberation shall have the same status as a vote by appel nominal.
- (13) The provisions of paragraph (3) that enable a Member to vote by proxy do not apply to the Alderney Representatives;

Provided that:

In addition, if the shareholding, or aggregate shareholding, exceeds 10% of the issued share capital you must also give a brief description of the main business activities of each of those companies and state what real property, if any, situated in the Bailiwick is held, either directly or indirectly, by the company.

PART 8 Trusts (excluding Professional Trusteeships)

You are not required to declare the value of the trust or the value or nature of any beneficial interest which you may have therein.

PART 9 Payments received for Public Speaking

Give the name and address of each organisation from which you received for your personal benefit a payment for public speaking during the year ending 30th April 20**, together with a brief description of the function at which the speech was made. You are not required to declare public speeches where the payment received was wholly for the benefit of a charitable organisation.

You are not required to declare the amount of any remuneration or other benefit received.

1. Any gift or material benefit received by a Member, or to the Member's knowledge by his or her spouse, co-habiting partner or infant children, must be declared if it:
  - (a) in any way relates to membership of the States; and
  - (b) is of a value greater than 1% of the basic remuneration for the time being payable to ordinary States Members (i.e. the rate payable to Members who are not the President, Policy & Resources Committee, Committee Presidents or Vice-Presidents) – hereafter referred to as the “qualifying value”.
2. Gifts of money or tangible items (e.g. jewellery, glassware), or other benefits (e.g. hospitality, tickets to sporting and cultural events, relief from indebtedness, loan concessions, provision of services, etc.) must be declared if they exceed the qualifying value. The Code of Conduct for States' Members requires that any such money or tangible gifts received by a Member must not be retained but must be transferred or delivered into the ownership of the States.
3. This means that any gift, or other benefit, which in any way relates to membership of the States and which is given gratis, or at a cost below that generally available to members of the public, shall be declared whenever the value of the gift or benefit is greater than the qualifying value. Any similar gift or benefit which is received by any company or organisation in which the Member, his or her spouse, co-habiting partner or infant children have a controlling interest must also be declared.
4. Gifts and other benefits from the same or associated sources in the course of the relevant 12 months which cumulatively are of greater value than the qualifying value must be registered, even if each single gift or benefit is of lesser value.
5. Benefits, such as tickets to sporting or cultural events, received by another person together with or on behalf of a Member must be declared as if they had been received by the Member.
6. Gifts or other benefits from another Member of the States are to be declared in the same way as those received from other persons.
7. Excepted from declaration:
  - a. are gifts and benefits known to be available to all Members of the States;

8. Gifts and material benefits are exempt from declaration if they do not relate in any way to membership of the States. Whether this exemption applies in any particular case is necessarily a matter of judgment. Both the possible motive of the giver and the use to which the gift is put have to be considered: if it is clear on both counts that the gift or benefit is entirely unrelated to membership of the States, and would not reasonably be thought by others to be so related, it need not be declared. If a Member has any doubt the gift or benefit must be declared.

PART 11

Any Other Interests

List any other interest or benefit received which you have not been required to declare in other parts of this form but which might reasonably be perceived by other persons to influence your actions as an elected Member of the States.

You are not required to declare the value of any interest or benefit received.

You may also use this section to record any interests or other matters that are not required to be registered but which, in your opinion, should be disclosed to the public.

Schedule 3

Declaration of Unspent Convictions

Enter 'none' in the box if there are no unspent convictions to declare

Declare here any unspent convictions which resulted in a sentence of imprisonment imposed by a court in any jurisdiction.

Explanatory note:

Rule 29 requires disclosure of any criminal convictions resulting in sentences of imprisonment which are not to be treated as spent pursuant to the Rehabilitation of Offenders (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2002 (“unspent convictions”). In broad terms, such a conviction is “unspent” until the end of the following periods, according to the length of prison sentence imposed in respect of it:

Imprisonment (including a suspended sentence of imprisonment) for a term exceeding 6 months but not exceeding 30 months	10 years after the date of conviction, or 5 years if the person was under 18 when convicted
Imprisonment (including a suspended sentence of imprisonment) for a term not exceeding 6 months	7 years after the date of conviction, or 3 ½ years if the person was under 18 when convicted

It is important to note that convictions recorded outside the Bailiwick are equally subject to rehabilitation, and are “unspent” for the same periods. The only exception is that these Rules do NOT require the unspent conviction to be declared if the conduct concerned would not be an offence if committed in Guernsey at the time the declaration is made. A conviction resulting in a sentence in excess of 30 months’ imprisonment is never spent, and must be declared irrespective of its date.
