

BA (Hons) in Health and Social Care Practice

Programme Modules:

Commencing November 2017

- End-of-life Care.
- Evaluating Quality in Health and Social Care.
- Health Promotion Policy and Practice.

Commencing March 2018

- Facilitating Change in Health and Social Care.
- Leadership in Health and Social Care.
- Promoting Good Practice in Mental Health Care or Learning Disability Care.

Individual modules may be studied as CPD

This Programme is quality assured by Middlesex University and you will receive a Middlesex award on successful completion.

Contact Us

Mark Hughes (Programme Lead) Tel:
(01481) 707324

Email: Mark.Hughes@gov.gg

Samantha Smedley
(Senior Administrator)

Email: Samantha.Smedley@gov.gg

The BA (Hons) in Health and Social Care Practice commences in September 2017 for the 2017-2018 academic year.

Who is this course suitable for?

This course is newly-validated by Middlesex University London, and is ideally suited to health and social care professionals who have not studied up to degree level. The course aims to enhance professional practice, by developing the students' professional skills, including leadership and management.

Closing Date for Applications:

Modules starting November 2017:

Friday 17th November 2017

Modules starting March 2018:

Friday 2nd February 2018