

PERSONAL INCOME TAX RETURN CALENDAR YEAR 2017

ONLINE RETURNS – It is quicker and easier to complete your return online. Please visit <https://eforms.gov.gg/> for details on how to register. Online returns are given priority over paper returns and there is no need to complete a summary sheet.

IMPORTANT

Please read these notes before completing your return

Please write clearly IN BLOCK CAPITALS using a black or blue ball point pen. Complete all sections by ticking the 'Yes' or 'No' box as appropriate and provide all relevant information – if you don't complete all the sections, we may treat your return as incomplete and send it back to you. If more space is required for any section, please use a separate sheet and attach it to the return.

For the purposes of this form, "Self" means the individual responsible for the couple's tax affairs (i.e. the husband in a heterosexual marriage or elder partner in a same-sex marriage or civil partnership).

For Guernsey income tax purposes, "Guernsey" includes Alderney and Herm.

PENALTIES – Penalties may be imposed if your completed return is not submitted by 30th November 2018. Penalties may also be imposed or prosecution sought if you submit an income tax return which is materially incorrect or incomplete, and fail to make/keep the appropriate records.

ISSUE OF ASSESSMENT – Please allow at least 4 months after submission of your paper return before making enquiries as to when you can expect to receive your assessment. As online returns are given a higher priority, if you complete online, our aim is that you should receive your assessment significantly earlier than if you had filed a paper return.

If you require more information, please see www.gov.gg/taxationfaq for various Frequently Asked Questions, or visit www.gov.gg/tax under "Income tax returns" for the Explanatory Guide "How To Complete Your Personal 2017 Paper Tax Return".

TAX EVASION – Help us stop tax evasion by contacting a member of our Compliance & International Unit and notifying them of anyone you believe to be evading tax. You can remain anonymous if you contact us via the Tax Evasion Hotline or the online Tax Evasion Form; however, should you provide your details, they will be kept strictly confidential and at no time would your identity be made known to the person about whom you are providing information.

You will each need to complete a separate tax return for the year you marry/enter into a civil partnership.

3. AUTHORITY TO DEAL WITH INCOME TAX AFFAIRS

Please tick this box if you authorise your spouse to deal with your income tax affairs on your behalf:

(Note: this authority will continue unless you confirm, in writing, that you have separated or that your spouse no longer has authority to deal with your income tax affairs.)

4. RESIDENCE DETAILS

This information is necessary to determine your residential status for income tax purposes and to ensure you are taxed correctly. If you didn't spend all year in Guernsey, you may not be entitled to the full personal allowance, which may be proportioned based on your time spent here. If you have recently arrived in Guernsey and haven't already completed a New Arrivals Form (form 1262) please do so as soon as possible. If you wish to provide further information, please use Section I.

PART 2 – INCOME RECEIVED DURING 2017

If you are resident in Guernsey for income tax purposes, all income, from any country, whether or not tax has been deducted, should be declared. If overseas tax has been deducted, evidence of this should be submitted with this return. However, if you have paid UK tax but your income was less than the UK tax allowance, no double taxation relief will be given as you will be entitled to claim a refund from HM Revenue & Customs.

A. EMPLOYMENT

Were you/your spouse employed during 2017?

Yes No

If 'No' please continue to Section B.

If 'Yes' please complete this section to show all your and your spouse's employers (no matter where in the world your employer is based) and gross wages received (i.e. the amount you received before income tax, social security, etc was deducted from your earnings – this should be on your final 2017 payslip(s) for each employer). Please don't submit payslips with this return.

If ‘Yes’, please attach a schedule showing the names and addresses of the subcontractors and amounts paid to each.

Further notes on the completion of Forms 3LA and TPLA are also available when downloading those forms.

E. INCOME FROM LET PROPERTY(1) Did you/your spouse receive income from let property during 2017?

Yes

No

If 'No' please continue to Section F.

If 'Yes' please provide details of the property and the income received from it. Please see Section E(2) if you wish to claim for mortgage interest paid on your let property. If the property was purchased in 2017, please tick column 'A' and attach a Property Checklist (form 357 – available at www.gov.gg/tax under "Other tax forms") if you haven't already forwarded the checklist to this office.

Guernsey properties – Where you are responsible for the costs of repairing your let property, you will be allowed a deduction (a Statutory Repairs Allowance) from the rental income, whether or not you incur any expenditure. This will be calculated by the Income Tax Office. If you wish to claim an additional deduction in respect of repairs and maintenance (including insurance on the structure of the building) for any Guernsey properties declared in this section, please attach a schedule detailing the nature of the expenditure incurred and the amounts involved for each property separately. Evidence of expenditure claimed may be requested.

Overseas properties – No Statutory Repairs Allowance is due on overseas properties so please provide a schedule if you wish to claim any expenses against the rental income received. Evidence of expenditure claimed may be requested.

I. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Do you wish to supply additional information regarding this return or details of any income for previous calendar years not so far declared, and/or monies invested (if not already shown elsewhere on this return) which haven't produced income for 2017?

Yes No

If 'No' please continue to Section J.

If 'Yes' please provide details below (and attach any relevant information to this return, if appropriate).

PART 3 – CLAIMS FOR DEDUCTIONS AND ALLOWANCES

J. OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY AND MORTGAGE INTEREST PAID

Please declare all properties owned and not let (including dwelling houses, glasshouses, land and buildings), whether in Guernsey or elsewhere.

If the property was purchased in 2017, please tick column 'A' and attach a Property Checklist (form 357 – available at www.gov.gg/tax under "Other tax forms") if you haven't already forwarded the checklist to this office.

Only interest paid can be claimed, not capital repayments.

J(1) Did you/your spouse own a property in Guernsey that you lived in (your principal private residence ("PPR")) during 2017?

Yes No

If 'No' please continue to Section J(2).

If 'Yes' please provide details of the property and, if appropriate, make a claim for the mortgage interest you have paid.

Only one property may be designated as your PPR. Please ensure the purpose of any loan is provided (e.g. purchase or renovations). Interest paid on money borrowed for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction or repair of a property is allowable on a PPR. Relief is limited to interest paid on a £400,000 mortgage and restricted to the level of the interest cap (£11,000 for individuals for 2017). See our website www.gov.gg/tax under "Tax rates and allowances" for more information regarding mortgage interest relief and the interest cap.

If your mortgage for the PPR is over £400,000, you will need to show the mortgage relief restriction calculation in the space provided below.

If the balance outstanding and/or interest has substantially increased/decreased since the last return made, please provide an explanation on a separate sheet and attach it to this return. If your mortgage will be ceasing this year, please contact the Income Tax Office so that your coding notice can be amended, if applicable.

If the mortgage or loan is joint, state the total balance outstanding at the year end, the total interest paid and the amount claimed by you.

If you moved during the year, resulting in two PPRs, please provide details on a separate sheet (ticking the box at the bottom of the summary sheet when doing so).

For full details of the rules for relief and interest paid (including those for loans for other qualifying purposes) see The Income Tax (Tax Relief on Interest Payments) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2007, as amended (see www.gov.gg/tax under "Income tax legislation").

Address of property	A ("✓")	Mortgage provider and purpose of loan	Balance outstanding at 31.12.17 £	Total interest paid £	Amount claimed by self £	Amount claimed by spouse £
Name(s) of joint borrower(s) if applicable
If your mortgage exceeds £400,000, please calculate the mortgage relief restriction in the space provided and declare that figure in the "Total interest paid" column		Please show your calculation here (I x £400,000 ÷ B): (I) £..... x £400,000 = £..... (B) £..... (I) = interest paid (B) = average of outstanding mortgage balances at the beginning and end of the year

J(2) Did you/your spouse own a property which was not let during 2017?

Yes No

If 'No' please continue to Section K.

If 'Yes' please provide details below and, if appropriate, make a claim for mortgage interest you have paid.

Address of property not let	A ("✓")	Mortgage provider and purpose of loan	Balance outstanding at 31.12.17 £	Total Interest paid £	Amount claimed by self £	Amount claimed by spouse £

K. INTEREST PAID ON LOANS OTHER THAN MORTGAGES

Did you/your spouse pay interest on a loan (other than a mortgage) during 2017?

Yes No

If 'No' please continue to Section L.

If 'Yes', please provide details of the interest paid below.

Only interest paid for qualifying purposes (not including capital repayments) can be claimed. Full details of loans for qualifying purposes are available in The Income Tax (Tax Relief on Interest Payments) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 2007, as amended.

Please ensure the columns relating to "Purpose" and "Balance outstanding" are completed. The purpose of the loan should be explained (e.g. purchase of company shares). You may be asked to provide evidence of the purpose and the amount of any deduction claimed in this section

Loans other than mortgages If the balance outstanding and/or interest has substantially increased/decreased since the last return made, please provide an explanation.			Interest paid (ensure no capital repayments are included)

L. DEEDS OF COVENANT

Did you/your spouse make any payments to a Guernsey Registered Charity under a Deed of Covenant during 2017?

Yes No

If 'No' please continue to Section M.

If 'Yes' an allowance for Deeds of Covenant is due only on Deeds approved by Guernsey Income Tax. Relief in respect of Deeds of Covenant approved prior to 1st January 2010 is available to the individual until the Deed is either amended or it expires. Relief is no longer due if a Deed commenced or was amended after 1st January 2010.
