Type of aircraft to be used and seating capacity: C208B Grand Caravan

Up to 12 passenger seats or 1000kg of cargo

Other aircraft in the applicants fleet, including seating capacity, that are considered suitable for the route:

The C208B can be operated in passenger, freight or a combination of both roles.

Other aircraft will join the fleet as the business grows not to exceed 12 seats

Proposed fare structure: Whole aircraft hire or single seat sales at a fixed price

Fares are all-inclusive and do not include any form of dynamic pricing

10.

Contingency plan if services are delayed or disrupted: Communication is our main tool when dealing with disruption. We also recommend the use of the other carriers on the route when our own services are unavailable

11.

Explain the need and/or demand for this service and the benefits that will derive to users and Guernsey if the application is granted:

Interisland travel has been in significant decline for the last 20 years, the need is to invigorate this market the demand is there to improve service levels and reduce journey times. Waves is able to provide a complimentary service to the existing operators and offer an improved customer experience and choice that can only be good for both Islands. The choice of aircraft enables a cost effective, high frequency service very similar to that available 20 years ago, and will undoubtedly re-energise the market.
