

The image to the right shows how the neighbour, despite having a high screen to the southern side of their roof terrace, can still overlook Crevichon garden by a significant amount. A primary driver of the design response for the following proposal, therefore, is not only to improve kitchen & living spaces, adding a study, utility and level access, but also to introduce some screening and privacy without materially affecting neighbour amenity.

