UK CA validates, and issue UK catch certificate. Fisher complete CC section 11 and forward CC to EU CA directly or via importer

This step is for the UK Competent Authority & the Fisher

- The UK CA notify the fisher person that the catch certificate is issued and the fisher person completes section 11 and may then either forwards it on to the EU CA by email or to anyone else designated as an importer (who can completes section 11 and then sends it to the EU CA)
- In order to confirm that the catch has been caught in accordance with appropriate conservation measures, the EU must receive a validated catch certificate - email address for the appropriate EU MS CA can be found on the NEAFC website <https://psc.neafc.org/designated-contacts> (NB this is an IUU requirement but the NEAFC web site provides the contact details)

The prior notification and the pre landing declaration and the catch certificate (as described later in this process) can all be sent at the same time (if they are all in accordance with defined notification times). They should be sent by email from the operator or their representative to the EU Authority as listed on the NEAFC website <https://psc.neafc.org/designated-contacts> (NB this is an IUU issue but the NEAFC website hosts the details). No response (approval) is required as a result of the submission of the prior notification or pre landing declaration prior to landing. This PNO message must be sent from the electronic fishing log on board the fishing vessel. If the latter does not have an electronic fishing log on board, the elements of the PNO must be sent by SMS (to obtain the available number, you must first call the CNSP). This SMS should contain all the necessary information (the information of the ship, the landing port, the time of landing, the species caught, the weight of each species, the fishing area.

Other Important Information

It is vital that all fishermen ensure that the catch data reported on their pre landing declaration, prior notification, catch certificate, NEAFC port state control form and log book all match. Fishers should check carefully when completing the different forms because if they don't match they can't be verified and will be rejected and landing denied.

Please find the helpline contact numbers below should you have any problems in the following areas:

Direct Landing:

IUU and NEAFC documentation must be received and approved by the French Authorities at the email address below. If the documents are ok they will email you approval to land. You should not attempt to land without approval. It is thought that the French Authorities who authorise landing may only be working normal office hours, we are trying to clarify the situation. We suggest you contact the French Authorities by email to confirm they have received your forms and are able to approve them.
