

PERSONAL INCOME TAX RETURN

CALENDAR YEAR 2020

Please read these notes before completing your return

Please write clearly IN BLOCK CAPITALS using a black or blue ball point pen. You must complete all sections by ticking the 'Yes' or 'No' box and providing all relevant information – if you don't complete all the sections, in full, we may treat your return as incomplete and send it back to you. If more space is needed for any section, please use a separate sheet and attach it to the return, ticking the box at the bottom of the summary sheet.

For income tax purposes, "Guernsey" includes Alderney and Herm.

PENALTIES – Penalties can be imposed if your completed return isn't submitted by 28th February 2022. Penalties may also be imposed or prosecution sought if you submit an income tax return which is materially incorrect or incomplete, and fail to make/keep the appropriate records.

ONLINE RETURNS – It's quicker and easier to complete your return online. Please visit <https://my.gov.gg/revenue> for details on how to register. Online returns are given priority over paper returns and there is no need to complete a summary sheet. If you complete this paper return, please allow several months before contacting us to ask when your assessment will be issued.

If you require more information, please see www.gov.gg/taxationfaq for various Frequently Asked Questions, or visit www.gov.gg/tax under "Income tax returns" for the Explanatory Guide "How To Complete Your Personal 2020 Paper Tax Return".

TAX EVASION – Help us stop tax evasion by contacting a member of our Domestic Compliance Unit and informing them of anyone you believe to be evading tax. You can remain anonymous if you contact us via the Tax Evasion Hotline or the online Tax Evasion Form; however, should you provide your details, they will be kept strictly confidential and at no time will your identity be made known to that person.

Telephone us on: The Tax Evasion Hotline +44 (0) 1481 227900

Email us at: taxhotline@gov.gg

Complete the online Tax Evasion Form at: www.gov.gg/domesticcompliance

Write to us at: States of Guernsey Revenue Service, PO Box 37, St Peter Port, GY1 3AZ

Fair Processing Notice: The information you have provided on this form is required under the Income Tax (Guernsey) Law, 1975 for the purposes of the assessment and collection of income tax. This information will be processed in line with the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017. For full details of our Fair Processing Notice and how we look after your data please visit: <https://www.gov.gg/revenueservice>. If you don't have access to the internet please contact us and a paper copy will be provided.

E. INCOME FROM LET PROPERTY

(1) Did you/your spouse receive income from let property during 2020?

Yes ☐ No ☐

If 'No' please continue to Section F.

If 'Yes' please provide details of the property and the income received from it. Please see Section E(2) if you wish to claim for mortgage interest paid on your let property. If the property was purchased in 2020, please tick column 'A' and attach a Buying Property form (available at www.gov.gg/tax under "Other tax forms") if you haven't already forwarded the checklist to this office.

Guernsey properties – Where you are responsible for the costs of repairing your let property, you will be allowed a deduction (a Statutory Repairs Allowance) from the rental income, whether or not you have any expenses. This will be calculated by the Revenue Service. If you wish to claim an additional deduction in respect of repairs and maintenance (including insurance on the building) for any Guernsey properties, please attach a schedule detailing the nature of the expenses and the amounts involved for each property separately. Evidence of expenditure claimed may be requested.

Overseas properties – No Statutory Repairs Allowance is due on overseas properties so please provide a schedule if you wish to claim any expenses against the rental income received. Evidence of expenditure claimed may be requested.

Yes

☐

No

If 'No' please continue to Section J(2).

If 'Yes' please provide details of the property and the interest you have paid, if applicable.

Only one property may be your PPR. Please ensure the purpose of any loan is provided (e.g. purchase or renovations). Interest paid on money borrowed for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction or repair of a property is allowable on a PPR. Relief is limited to interest paid on a £400,000 mortgage and restricted to a cap (£6,500 for individuals for 2020). See our website www.gov.gg/tax under "Tax rates and allowances" for more information regarding mortgage interest relief and the interest cap.

If the balance outstanding and/or interest has substantially increased/decreased since the last return made, please provide an explanation on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this return. If your mortgage will be ceasing or reducing significantly this year, please contact us so that your coding notice can be amended, if applicable.

If the mortgage or loan is joint, please state the total balance outstanding at the year end, the total interest paid and the amount claimed by you.

If you moved during the year, please provide details.
