If you have income from company distributions, please refer to statement of practice C48 and provide details.

The £50,000 tax cap (or proportion thereof) may be claimed in the year an individual takes up permanent residence in Guernsey and for three consecutive years thereafter. The lower tax cap is only available to new residents arriving in Guernsey after 1 January 2018 who have personally paid a minimum of £50,000 in document duty, on the purchase of a property on part A of the open market register. The property must be purchased within twelve months prior to, or twelve months after their permanent arrival in Guernsey and the individual cannot have been resident in Guernsey/Alderney at any time in the previous three years.
