12:32	Presiding Officer	Morning session to adjourn
12:33		LUNCH RECESS
		The start of the States' Meeting was delayed by 14 minutes
14:44	Presiding Officer
14:44	Deputy Ferbrache	Advises that discussions had taken place between the Policy & Resources Committee and the States' Trading Supervisory Board which has resulted in 'Amendment 9' which would be proposed by Deputy Helyar and seconded by Deputy Roffey. Requests that debate on Amendment 8 (the current debate) be suspended and for Amendment 9 to be laid and debated and depending on the outcome of the debate and vote on Amendment 9, Amendment 8 be reconsidered.
14:45	Presiding Officer
14:45	Deputy Kazantseva-Miller	Sought clarification if debate is suspended on Amendment 8, whether it can be brought back later on.
14:45	Presiding Officer	Advised that if Amendment 9 is passed the intention is that Amendment 8 will be withdrawn and Amendment 9 will replace it, in effect, so Amendment 8 will fall away and debate will not continue on that Amendment. Advised there is no specific provision for this under the Rules. One option is that the Rules are suspended to allow this to happen. On balance, the Presiding Officer considered it is within her powers as Presiding Officer (in deciding the order and how the amendments should be dealt with) and noting the particular circumstances in play (the proposer of the original proposition - Deputy Roffey - was seconding the proposition and the proposer of the Amendment - Deputy Helyar) that the appropriate action to take is to suspend debate on Amendment 8 and allow Amendment 9 to be laid
