Access to Public Information request:

Request for information:

How many members of Guernsey's Parliament have shares or interests in the cannabis industry?

How many of Guernsey's judges have shares or interests in the cannabis industry?

Response:

All members of the States Assembly are required to declare their interests. These are all published online, and are in the public domain. They can be found here: Declarations of Interest - States of Guernsey \(gov.gg\)

There is no similar requirement for Judges to declare their interests. As such, the States of Guernsey does not hold or have access to the information you have requested and therefore it cannot be provided, as per paragraph 1.6 of the code of practice on access to public information:

“This Code does not require service areas or Committees to acquire information that they do not possess, to provide information which is already published, to provide material which the States did not consider to be reliable information, or to provide information which is provided as part of an existing charged service other than through that service.”.
