

Board Member for the States' Trading Supervisory Board

The States' Trading Supervisory Board (STSB) is looking for a voting Non-States Member to join the Board.

The STSB provides governance and political oversight of the States' trading businesses, including Guernsey Ports, Guernsey Dairy, Guernsey Water, Guernsey Waste, States Works and the Lottery. The STSB also acts as shareholder on behalf of the States in the States' owned trading companies, these being Guernsey Post, Guernsey Electricity, the Aurigny Group and Jamesco 750.

Together, these 10 businesses comprise the States Trading Group which is overseen by the STSB within a framework of policies, guidance and instructions of the States and their relevant Committees. The STSB is also responsible for undertaking waste operation services as the Island's Waste Disposal Authority. Overall, the Trading Group has combined assets of more than £650 million, and in 2019 employed more than 1,300 islanders and recorded annual turnover of more than £200m.

Membership of the STSB includes up to two voting members who are not Members of the States and who are appointed by the States upon the recommendation of the STSB. The STSB is seeking to recruit a Non-States Member for a four year term that will become vacant on 16th October, 2021. Candidates will need to be able to demonstrate Board experience in a commercial, legal and/or financial services background at executive or non-executive level, with knowledge of and skills in Board and shareholder responsibilities, risk management, operational efficiency and performance reviews. Candidates should also be experienced in setting strategic direction, benchmarking and change management. Effective communication and analytical skills, together with a strong commitment to customer services, are essential. Ideally, candidates should be qualified as a Chartered Director or hold a Diploma in Company Direction.
