6. QUESTIONS

---

From: Deputy Gollop

To: President, Policy & Resources Committee

- 1 Will the Policy & Resources Committee be bringing soon to the States policies regarding civil service pensions and working conditions with any proposed strategic changes?
  - 2 What plans for performance related pay have been advanced for public sector employees?

From: Alderney Representative To: President, States' Trading Supervisory Board Snowdon

- 1 Following cancellations of Aurigny air services with Dornier aircraft for Alderney over the Easter weekend, could the President explain what led to the situation?
  - 2 Does the President agree with me that taking one of the Dorniers out for annual maintenance during the Easter Holidays resulted in Alderney being in a very vulnerable position with the remaining Dornier going technical?
  - 3 Will the President be consulting Aurigny following the lack of flights over the Easter period, seeking a review from Aurigny on how they will ensure a repeat of these events is avoided in the future?
  - 4 Will the President assure this Assembly when any review takes place the States' Trading Supervisory Body will work with the States of Alderney?

From: Deputy St Pier To: President, Committee for Home Affairs

---

- 1 Having formally agreed the Rules to the Family Scheme and the Extension Scheme could you please provide a general update and status report (including, for example, the number of known applicants etc.) under that scheme?
  - 2 The President was quoted as saying, "The Committee will now look at a number of options, based on the work that has been achieved in recent days and weeks." Could you please briefly outline the options under consideration?
  - 3 Having concluded that the UK's Homes for Ukraine Scheme does not provide a workable blueprint that can be replicated within the Bailiwick readily, could you please:
    - a) outline why the Committee has concluded the UK scheme does not provide a workable blueprint within the Bailiwick?
    - b) provide an update on progress to developing a workable scheme?
