12:48	Deputy Gollop	Questioned whether the States should work out what it will do for the rest of the day given the breadth of business still left to be considered.
12:48	Presiding Officer	Motion that the States' reconvene at 14:00.
12:48	VOTE: Motion CARRIED	Motion that the States' reconvene at 14:00.	VOTE: Motion CARRIED
12:48	Presiding Officer	It was highlighted that there were seven propositions relating to the Accounts due to be discussed. The Ordinary Meeting would need to be convened - regardless of how long it might be - to enable the Schedule for Future States' Business to be voted upon. Highlighted that Members will need to consider which propositions, out of the 24 propositions to be considered attached to the Government Work Plan 2022, would need to be by recorded votes. Members will also need to consider whether to continue to consider the Accounts or defer these items and consider the items from the 29th June Ordinary Meeting.
