Freedom of Information request regarding applications made by architects

Request

“Please could you provide me with the numbers of successful (i.e. ultimately resulting in permission to perform the requested action) planning applications, broken down by architect, made on behalf clients by architects (both chartered and technologists) based in Guernsey for the calendar years 2021 and 2022.”

Response provided by the Development & Planning Authority

The information sought has not been released as information specific to individual architect firms and their applications is commercial information not appropriate for the States of Guernsey to publish.
