Freedom of Information request regarding access to approved planning applications

Request

I request information concerning all planning permissions applied for and granted for the property at [property name and address redacted] from November 2013 to date. In particular the following referenced applications, plans and permissions granted for new residential development [reference numbers redacted].

The reason for the request is to settle a legal technicality pertaining to a deed of sale for the property dated [date redacted].

Response provided by the Development & Planning Authority

Attached with this reply are copies of the decision notices and planning reports pertaining to the applications specifically referenced in the enquiry. The approved plans relating to the most recent of these applications which was approved in June 2022 can be accessed at the present time by the enquirer using the procedure described in the Authority's published policy for public access to previously approved plans, a copy of which is also attached with this reply.
